Creative Initiatives

Co-Founder and Co- Director of Sparks & Wiry Cries, 501(c)3 (The Art Song Magazine Inc.: www.sparksandwirycries.org

Sparks & Wiry curates opportunities for art song creators, performers, and scholars through innovative initiatives that capture the stories of our diverse communities. Its activities include publication of the Art Song Magazine, presentation of the songSLAM festival in NYC, commission and premiere of new works and Creation, and co-production of songSLAM competitions for emerging composers and performers. Projects include:

- Martha Guth and 'Sparks' will be the lead administrator envisioning, creating, launching, Fundraising the NEA backed 'Songs in Flight' that includes partnerships with the Philadelphia Chamber Music Society, The MEtropolitan Museum of Art, The Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture, the Harriet Tubman House, Cornell University, Duke University, Lincoln University (HBCU), and Cheyney University (HBCU). This project includes a weekend of performances in each partner city, the world premiere of a full evening length recital by Shawn Okpebholo with texts curated by Tsitsi Ella Jaji surrounding Cornell Universities Freedom on the Move Database, and performances by Rhiannon Giddens, Karen Slack, Reggie Mobely, Will Liverman, and Howard Watkins.
- 2021-2024's publishing partnerships: The next three seasons bring two publishing partnerships to Sparks, expanding future performance opportunities at all levels of the music we commission and premiere. New Music Shelf, whose artist-led and owned company is the perfect fit for emerging composers, publishes songSLAM anthologies curated by Sparks in which the composers retain ownership of their intellectual property while enjoying the benefits of publication. A second volume of songs will be available summer of 2022. This year we have also entered into a partnership with E.C. Schirmer Publishing for our larger commissions. As a traditional publishing company, ECS provides commissioned composers the luxury of marketing and promotion for their work. Sparks will see 7-10 of its commissioned song cycles published through ECS in a renewable three-year "Sparks & Wirv Cries Art Song Series."
- The Art Song Magazine: The Art Song Magazine provides educational and promotional resources to artists, students, teachers, and enthusiasts while sparking awareness of artistically diverse and abundant song- related initiatives around the world. The Art Song Magazine showcases articles written by pre-eminent song musicologists (Susan Youens, Michael Musgrave), podcasts and print interviews of composers and Performers (Graham Johnson, Gerald Findley, Christine Brewer, Julius Drake, Tom Cipullo, Stephen Paulus, Ned Rorem, Libby Larsen etc.), blog articles written by young performers and leaders of other song initiatives.
- The songSLAM Festival: The festival presents intimate vocal recitals that explore the complex union of poetry and music through collaborative performances, fostering connections within the broader artistic community.
 - o A performance weekend Every January
 - A recital in partnership with Fall Island Vocal Arts Seminar that presents Stephanie Blythe, her pianist of choice and an emerging duo of her choosing from Fall Island Vocal Arts Seminar
 - o Presentation of newly commissioned works,
 - Past and present performers include: Malcom Martineau, Stephanie Blythe, Rhiannon Giddens, Karen Slack, LaToya Lain, Jessica Care Moore, Naomi Louisa O'Connell, Margaret Lattimore, Kathleen Kelly, Howard Watkins, and Alan Louis Smith.

- Sparks Commissions: The Sparks Commissioning program funds the creation of new art song, with a preference for active collaborations between poet and composer. Sparks Commissions includes:
 - NYC premiere through the songSLAM Festival
 - Select score publication and distribution option through Sparks & Wiry Cries
 - Online promotion and sales through www.artsongmagazine.org
 - Partnership with New Music Shelf for print publication of the first songSLAM Song book, available June 2020.
 - A strong preference for choosing teams of composer/poet/performers representative of the diverse population of the United States.
- International *song*SLAM partnerships:
 - Partnerships with educational institutions, small art song organizations, and festivals including: The Kerrytown Concert House, Cincinnati Song Initiative, Festival Ljubljana, Per Artem, Re-Sung, Art Song Lab, Fourth Coast Ensemble, and the University of Toronto,
 - 2019-2020 includes 8 different songSLAM's in NYC, Buffalo, Chicago, Cincinnati, Minneapolis, Vancouver (Canada), Ljubljana (Slovenia), London (U.K.).
 - June of 2020, presentation of the first GRAND songSLAM at the National Association of Teachers of Singing (NATS) as their opening evening event.
 - To date: Sparks has overseen the World premiere of over 250 individual songs through songSLAM competitions
- As Co-Founder and Co- Director of Sparks & Wiry Cries my duties include:
 - o Co-Creation of the artistic vision and mission of the organization
 - Budgeting
 - Assembling a team of creative people
 - Grant writing
 - Creating a board
 - Producing fundraisers
 - o Contracting artists, scholars and composers
 - Applied and achieved 501(c)3 tax-exempt status in 2015
 - o 11 seasons of recital production

Administrative and Leadership Experience

L

Founding Faculty at the Vancouver International Song Institute (VISI) (www.songinstitute.ca): (2007-2014) A three-week training institute focusing on 5 programs emphasizing the diversity in art song study and performance, including a core program of song students, a Song Scholarship program, a French Mélodie program, the Art Song Lab, and a Contemporary Studies Program. A faculty performance component has long been a part of VISI.

As part of the founding faculty I took part in the process of shaping VISI from its beginning. Work included:

- Conferences that shaped the developing structure of the three-week training institute
- Reaching out to donors for fundraising initiative
- Recruiting headlining faculty
- Recruiting students
- Creation and co-direction of the Contemporary Performance Studies program (CPS)
- Administrating the Contemporary Performance Studies program
- Performing with other founding faculty members and headliners including interdisciplinary work that has included dance, projection, and stage direction
- Coaching and mentoring students one on one and in small groups
- Working as a faculty partner to the student collaborative pianists so that their experience can be enriched by working with professional singers

As Co-Director of the Contemporary Studies program I:

- Co-Created the initial program including daily scheduling
- Worked closely with the Artistic Director of VISI in administering the program
- Programmed and assigned repertoire for the students
- Worked with the composers and students to create constructive ways in which to collaborate
- Taught masterclasses to the entire group and worked one on one with students

II.

Baroque on Beaver: A Classical Music festival on Beaver Island, MI that runs for 10 days in August (2005-Present) in which I

- As a performer and producer successfully created and fundraised for the Beaver Island Music Fund that eventually was used as the initial funding for the inaugural festival.
- Worked as a consultant to the board on how to bring up both the quality and pay of the performers, which has steadily and safely been rising over the past decade.
- Sought out, and successfully attained the partnership of Baroque on Beaver as a commissioning presenter and funding partner for a new song cycle by Tom Cipullo set to the texts of Beaver Island poet Robert Cole entitled 'An Island in Autumn', which was premiered at the festival, later performed on the Casement Fund Song Series in NYC, and then performed at Carnegie Hall in 2015.
- Continue to remain a vital part of the festival by performing and curating fundraising concerts and performing in their chamber music and symphonic concerts pro-bono.

Specialized Writing Experience, Published Articles

- Print Interviews for Crescendo (Newsletter/ezine to the Santa Fe Opera)
 - Written interview of composer and librettist John Corigliano and Mark Adamo for their new world premiere Opera "Lord of Cries"
 - Written article on one of the new productions for the Santa Fe Opera's forthcoming 2021 season (title withheld due to nondisclosure agreement)
- Published article for Art Song Canada "American Art Song: a genre in transition", Issue 6, Winter 2020.
- Free-lance writer and researcher for the Metropolitan Opera for three seasons (2012-2015), 5-7 interviews per week during the season. Examples of these can be produced upon request.
 - Wrote introductions and conclusions for the late Margaret Juntwait and current host Mary-Jo Heath to read on air
 - Wrote interview questions for hundreds of interviews, which were often used verbatim on air or were used as points of departure.
 - Gave a detailed written compilation of every interviewed artists' performances at the Met, and compiled a biographic narrative that spanned 2-3 pages for each

Personal Commissions and dedications

Commissions*:

- 'Three Night Songs' by Scott Wheeler this is re-working of works already composed to include strings
- Tom Cipullo's song cycle to texts of Robert Cole entitled An Island in Autumn
- Andrew Staniland's Song cycle set to texts of Robin Richardson entitled Islands and Earthquakes
- Bruce Sled's song to a text by poet Lloyd Schwarz entitled Sestina

Dedications:

• Thomas Pasatieri: a 'Bel Canto Song' from his set

 Juliana Hall's 'How do I love thee' five songs for Soprano with texts of Elizabeth Barrett Browning (World premiere 2017)

*Through Sparks & Wiry Cries I have additionally commissioned over 250 songs and 10 cycles.

Board Experience

Vancouver International Song Institute: One year on the board, where I worked for sustainability of Art Song scholarship, training, and its expanding performance market.

Reviews & Profiles (A select listing)

Profiles:

- Musical America, January 2020: "Sparks & Wiry Cries"
- The Whole note, Toronto, Nov. 2018: "songSLAM celebrates singer and song
- Classical Post website: Sept. 2018: "Sparks & Wiry Cries expands"
- WMUK, radio, Aug. 2017 "Martha Guth, a soprano who revels in her range"
- Classical Singer: Sept. 2015, an article outlining professional performers who are also concert producers and entrepreneurs: "Wearing all the Hats: Singers as administrators"

Select Reviews:

- Opera Now: "From the first notes the atmosphere in the hall changed. It was one of those magical moments."
- Opera News: "...performances were by Sparks & Wiry Cries founders soprano Martha Guth and pianist Erika Switzer, with baritone Jesse Blumberg and the guidance of stage director David Schweitzer and Mark Campbell himself serving as host. It was gratifying to observe that he is as eloquent and nimble with the spoken word as he is with the written. Guth and Blumberg gave first-rate dramatic performances throughout, and proved to have great chemistry in their duets. Switzer's accompaniment was flexible and sensitive. As a solo performer, Guth was at her best in Cummings' Thoroughfare, a mini-song cycle inspired in part by Wintereisse. The songs are anguished, comic and at times angry, requiring a great versatility that Guth managed well."
- Arts Birmingham: "Out front for this performance was soprano Martha Guth, who portrayed the lead character, Anna, with bawdiness and humor, toting a briefcase, twirling a scarf and writhing on the floor as the drama progressed from Louisiana through Memphis and beyond." (Kurt Weill's Seven Deadly Sins)"
- Globe and Mail: "Martha Guth as Pompey's widow created a fiercely proud and dignified Roman matron, and in her trumpet aria hurled out her thrilling top range."
- Montreal Gazette: "Ms. Guth's artistic maturity became truly amazing in her interpretation of Schumann's 'Frauenliebe und Leben'. The young lady's rendition was immensely moving."
